READ WHAT COACHES ARE SAYING ABOUT COACH LARSON

Take It To The Rim Basketball Camp is one of the best instructional and skill development camps in the country. In my 25 year coaching career, I had the good fortune of being around, and learning from and competing against some of the best basketball coaches in the country. Forrest Larson is the most knowledgeable coach I have ever encountered when it comes to skill development. Forrest has a passion and detailed approach to taking your game to the next level as a player. You will learn what you need to be the very best player when you attend Take It To The Rim. This is the camp I endorse over any other camp in the country. This is individual skill development at it's finest.

Mathew Mitchell
University of Kentucky (Retired)
All time wins leader in the school's history.

"At the Take It To The Rim Basketball Camp you will use many of the same drills that we use in our own individual instruction program. The Take It To The Rim Basketball Camp is one of the best instructional and skill development camps in the country. "If you are serious about putting in the time and effort that it takes to become a better basketball player; I would strongly recommend the Take It To The Rim Basketball Camp be a part of your summer schedule."

Billy Donovan
Chicago Bulls

Message From Coach Larson:

As high school coaches, we know we want our players to have the self-discipline to work out on their own and to do more than just play. Having had the opportunity to be a high school coach for twenty-nine years my best teams, teams that won conference championships and competed for state titles, were tremendous offensively. Everyone playing had the ability to put the ball on the floor, make plays, and make shots. These abilities were developed in the off-season and at Take It To The Rim Basketball Camps. Running Take It To The Rim Basketball Camp is an extremely serious endeavor. Watching a camp session, I would hope you see someone passionately teaching the game of basketball. Each camp session is carefully planned to maximize the number of quality repetitions a player achieves. Each camper has an intense learning experience, increasing the work ethic, effort, confidence, and enjoyment for each camper. When returning home I would hope you would see a more energized player who is working for a purpose. I know that is what I want as a coach. Having had the opportunity to watch Sean Miller, Billy Donovan, and Rick Pitino run individual instruction has helped me to put together a quality individual instructional program. If you have any questions regarding camp, please do not hesitate to contact me. I hope to have the opportunity to work with your players this summer.

Topics Covered at Camp:

- Emphasis on 4-5 dribble moves.
- Offensive footwork in terms of squaring up, moving the defense and then attacking.
- Finishing at the rim, making lay-ups.
- Breaking pressure, creating space, and attacking the press.
- The ability to pivot vs. pressure.
- Organizing your off season ball handling and shooting workouts

BRING YOUR OWN BALL (LEATHER PREFERRED)

Please Note:

You agree that by sending your son or daughter to camp that they are healthy and physically fit enough to compete at a high level for the duration of each camp session. If your son or daughter isn't feeling well please have them stay home.
